F. Knight : Law, Power and Culture: Supporting Change From Within (Palgrave Socio-Legal Studies) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Law, Power and Culture: Supporting Change From Within (Palgrave Socio-Legal Studies):

A fresh theory on how individuals respond to inequalities occurring within their own communities. This original and insightful study draws on empirical research on the Santal people of Asia, examining power relations within social fields, and the state, to reveal a typology of power practices, and applies these to forced marriage in the West.

About the Author Fauzia Knight is an independent scholar based in the UK and former Joint Director of the BA in Anthropology and Law at the London School of Economics and Political Science.
