About the Author Edward S. Snyder Edward S. Snyder has been a matrimonial practitioner for over 40 years. In 1999,

Ed was recognized by his peers as the recipient of the Saul Tischler Award from the Family Law Section of the New Jersey Bar Association for lifetime achievement in family law. Ed is a results-oriented legal professional who has represented thousands of men and women and assisted them in achieving excellent results in a professional and dignified manner. He has been lead counsel in numerous trials and has argued many appeals including the nationally celebrated case of Konzelman v. Konzelman, which focused on the termination of alimony, in which he represented the winning side before the Supreme Court of New Jersey. Ed is a fellow of the American Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. He served as a member of the Council of the Section of Family Law of the American Bar Association from 1984 to 1990 and he is a former chairman of the Family Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association. He is a charter fellow of the International Academy of Matrimonial Lawyers. He was elected a diplomate of the American College of Family Trial Lawyers whose membership is limited to only 100 trial lawyers throughout the country. Ed has lectured throughout the country on matrimonial and custody matters for many organizations, including the New Jersey Judicial College, the New Jersey State Bar Association, the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, the Delaware State Bar Association, the New York Trial Lawyers Association, the Pennsylvania Bar Institute and the American Bar Association. His articles on family law have appeared in many legal publications. Ed is often contacted by the news media to comment on issues of national interest and has appeared on CourtTV. Ed has been selected for Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers, The Best Lawyers in America and Super Lawyers. He has three children and lives with his wife in Millburn, NJ. In his spare time he enjoys reading, hiking and spending time with his family.
