J.F. Appeldoorn, H.H.B. Vedder : Mededingingsrecht before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mededingingsrecht:

Written in Dutch language, this second edition is the leading textbook on European and Dutch competition law. The book is aimed at advanced law students and provides an excellent introduction to competition law. Attention is paid to the economic and political context in which competition law is applied. Apart from a clear overview of the applicable law (Articles 101-108 TFEU and the Merger Control Regulation), the book also touch upon various unresolved topics within competition law. This critical approach makes it suitable also for practicing lawyers in need a thorough and critical analysis of the law.
