Compliance Strategies (Inside the Minds)*:

New Developments in Securities Litigation provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on understanding the latest trends in securities law and litigation. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through the intricacies of recent and proposed changes to state and federal securities law, with an emphasis on topics such as executive compensation, insider trading, proxy access rule, pay-to-play cases, and aiding and abetting liability. Keeping in mind the current economic environment, these top lawyers discuss common enforcement and oversight issues, significant court cases, recent changes to the SEC, and the repercussions of Ponzi schemes. Additionally, these leaders reveal their strategies for working efficiently with regulators, keeping abreast of change, and creating an up-to-date client compliance program. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this dynamic field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1.
