whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Non-State Justice Institutions and the Law: Decision-Making at the Interface of Tradition, Religion and the State (Governance and Limited Statehood):

This book focuses on decision-making by non-state justice institutions at the interface of traditional, religious, and state laws. The authors discuss the implications of non-state justice for the rule of law, presenting case studies on traditional councils and courts in Pakistan, South Sudan, Ethiopia, Bolivia and South Africa.
