Brian H. Getson : Obtaining a US Visa Based on Achievement: What You Need to Know (Quick Prep) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Obtaining a US Visa Based on Achievement: What You Need to Know (Quick Prep):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great book which explains in simple terms how to file a visa petition based on achievements. The book explains how to prepare the application packet for immigrant visa petitions in the EB-1A, EB-1B and EB-2 National Interest Waiver categories along with non-immigrant visas like O-1A. The author (an established immigration attorney) clearly has a vast experience in such petitions. His ability to simplify the topic for a layman is impressive. The sample recommendation letters for EB-1A, EB-1B and EB-2 National Interest Waiver are also useful. I would encourage anyone planning to file a visa petition based on achievement to purchase this book.

Obtaining a US Visa Based on Achievement provides a comprehensive and relevant overview of the legal standards a foreign national must meet to obtain an immigrant (permanent) or nonimmigrant (temporary) work visa based on achievement, as well as how to effectively prepare and present evidence in support of a petition submitted to United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. Written by an attorney who has practiced immigration and nationality law since 1995 and has received countless approvals for his clients in achievement based cases, this book provides readers with an excellent background of the United States employment based immigration process for foreign nationals with documented accomplishments in their field of endeavor. The author covers such key topics as EB-1A extraordinary ability aliens, EB-1B outstanding professors and researchers, EB-2 national interest waivers (NIW), O-1 visas for extraordinary ability aliens, P visas for athletes, artists, and entertainers, reference and cover letters in support of a petition, the use of premium processing, and visa availability for Chinese and Indian citizens versus the rest of the world. Through these various topics, this book provides a how-to guide for the submission of an achievement based petition and furnishes information that can be utilized by foreign nationals and attorneys. Obtaining a US Visa Based on Achievement is an indispensable resource that provides the essential information necessary to prepare and file an achievement based petition with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services, which includes preparation/presentation of the evidence along with an understanding of the legal requirements that must be met for receipt of a petition approval. This easy-to-read book explains how to successfully prepare and file an EB-1A, EB-1B, EB-2 NIW, O-1, or P visa petition, including useful insights, an explanation of the legal and evidentiary requirements for each classification, and tips for meeting the high standard for approval in the achievement based visa categories. After reading this guide, qualified foreign nationals will be prepared to proceed with confidence in filing a petition with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services. About the Author Brian H. Getson leads the nationwide immigration practice of Getson Schatz PC with offices in Philadelphia, PA and New York, NY. He has extensive experience representing scientific researchers and other foreign nationals of achievement in filing petitions with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services in the EB-1A extraordinary ability aliens, EB-1B outstanding professors and researchers, EB-2 national interest waiver, O-1 and P visa categories.
