Clive M. Brand, Delyth W. Williams : Planning Law for Conveyancers (Practitioner Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Planning Law for Conveyancers (Practitioner Series):

Specifically designed for use by the busy conveyancer, this is a practical guide to the working of the town and country planning system as it directly affects a conveyancing transaction and clearly demonstrates how errors can be avoided. Fully updated to take account of the Town and Country Planning (Use Classes) Order 1987, the Housing and Planning Act 1986, the Town and Country Planning (Amendment) Act 1985 as well as the Local Government Act 1985. A host of recent statutory instruments and other legislative changes together with over 50 new cases are also analysed. Substantial increases in many of the financial penalties for breach of planning control are noted and the new planning fees are set out. This new edition also discusses the amendments to the Special Development Order 1985 concerning national parks, areas of outstanding natural beauty and conservation areas. '...a very handy aid and reference for solicitors who are not planning experts.' Law Society's Gazette '...a good standby at the elbow for the quick answer.' Property Law Bulletin
