clear and lucid writing style and a manageable length, offering a concise, efficient, and effective format. Inclusion of the most important cases, which illustrate the reactions of the courts to the issues. A carefully constructed Teacher's Manual includes answers to all problems in the text. The Seventh Edition incorporates many significant developments since the publication of the previous edition, including:

- new Bankruptcy Code provisions
- new cases that have arisen since the previous edition: - Border State Bank of Greenbush v. Bagley Livestock Exchange, Inc. (discussing the meaning of rights in the collateral) - Metzger v. Americredit Financial Services, Inc. (certificate of title for motor vehicles priority) - R J of Tennessee, Inc. v. Blankenship-Melton Real Estate, Inc., and Coxall v. Clover Commercial Corp. (repossession and resale issues)
- updated problems, including a new problem at end of Chapter 2 exploring additional 9-109 exclusions from Article 9 coverage
