Martin Molinuevo : Protecting Investment in Services. Investor State Arbitration versus WTO Dispute Settlement (Global Trade Law) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Protecting Investment in Services. Investor State Arbitration versus WTO Dispute Settlement (Global Trade Law):

International economic relations are governed by two bodies of international law. Trade in goods and services is the domain of international trade law, embodied in the WTO agreements. Foreign investment is governed by international investment law, consisting of a vast network of investment agreements, including bilateral investment treaties (BITs) and preferential trade agreements (PTAs).
