Craig Proulx : Reclaiming Aboriginal Justice, Identity, and Community (Purich's Aboriginal Issues Series)
before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Reclaiming Aboriginal Justice, Identity, and Community (Purich's Aboriginal Issues Series):

In his analysis of justice issues facing urban Aboriginals, Proulx pays particular attention to the situation of Aboriginal peoples in Canada, and how the current justice system has failed them. He looks at alternatives to the current system, examining in detail the Community Council Project (CCP), an Aboriginal-run diversion program in Toronto. The analysis of the CCP shows how effective, culturally appropriate, alternative justice mechanisms can provide justice for those not well served by the current system. Among other issues addressed in the book are: crime causation; Indigenous justice knowledge and practice; healing; changes in tradition and culture; and personal and community ownership and empowerment.
