Sanzhu Zhu : Securities Dispute Resolution in China before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Securities Dispute Resolution in China:

This book provides a comprehensive and detailed study of the increasingly important issue of how cases involving securities are dealt with by Chinese courts, commissions and other administrative authorities and by arbitration and mediation in the PRC. The work identifies the nature and types of securities disputes and the various procedures, including alternative dispute resolution, used to address them. This timely, groundbreaking book is particularly relevant at a time of growing foreign investment in China's securities market. The volume will be an invaluable resource for researchers and practitioners in developed as well as emerging market.

About the Author Sanzhu Zhu is Lecturer in Chinese Commercial Law at the School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, UK.
